

Hebron News Update

Friday 11th April 25

This Sunday morning Derek will be preaching in our Easter series and we'll be sharing communion together. In the evening, Jonny will continue our Easter sermon series.

Coffees will be served at 10.15am before the 10.30 prayer time, and again, after the morning service.

All mid-week groups and Home Groups are back up and running this week after the Easter break.

In a few weeks' time the Ebenezer Choir from Torshavn in Faroe Islands will be visiting Scotland and holding a concert in Hebron on Saturday 26th April at 7pm. No tickets are required to attend and all are very welcome!

Hebron Easter dates:

- Sunday 13th April: Palm Sunday services at 11am and 6.30pm
- Monday 14th – Friday 18th: normal mid-week activities will run
- Wednesday 16th: Gilcomstoun Primary school class visit to the church
- Sunday 20th: Easter Sunday at 11am and Easter Praise Night at 6.30pm
- Sunday 20th: open invite for Easter cakes and Egg Quiz-Hunt at Rod and Sally's house at 3pm

Now is the time to be planning for Summer!

Various summer camps and mission options were mentioned in last week's newsletter but our own Holiday Club has an update this week:

Our own summer Holiday Club, run in partnership with Bon Accord Free Church, Gilcomston Church and YMCA, takes place from 11th to 15th August – we'll be running a Heroes Academy this year where we will discover that Jesus is the greatest hero of all!

Team sign-up is now open at www.hebronaberdeen.org.uk/team

Please pray for Helen and Neil Milne and the family following the passing of Helen's mum this week in Shetland.

Accommodation – a modern 2-bed flat is available to rent in Bloomfield Court (just off Hardgate/Holburn Street) for £750/month. Ideal for RGU and city centre. The owners are relatives of Hebron members – if you would like more information please reply to this email.

Every Blessing,
