

Hebron News Update

Saturday 19th April 2025

Just a quick message this weekend to wish everyone a Happy Easter!

We'll be celebrating the Resurrection on Sunday at 11am with a Family Service, including normal children's activities where we are quite excited about combining our final lesson in the Old Testament, "The Great and Awesome Day of the Lord," with Easter!

Coffees will be served at 10.15am before the 10.30 prayer time, and again, after the morning service.

In the afternoon all are welcome to Rod and Sally's house for Easter cakes, coffee, and egg-related activities – we need all ages for the annual Quiz-Hunt so do join us if you can, from 3pm at Auchenbervie, AB32 7EL.

Later on, at 6.30pm in our Evening Service we will have an Easter Praise Evening, which will celebrate the Easter story through readings and songs.

All mid-week groups and Home Groups are running in their usual slots this week.

Next Saturday the Ebenezer Choir concert takes place in Hebron - on Saturday 26th April at 7pm. No tickets are required to attend and all are very welcome!

Every Blessing,
