

Hebron News Update

Friday 29th August 25

This Sunday:

- 10.30am - Prayer time, with coffee served from 10.15am
- 11am – Jonny preaches on the beginning of Habakkuk 1.
- 12.15pm – tea and coffee
- 6.30pm – Stephen Porter continues our series in 1 Kings, looking at chapter 4 this week and we'll be sharing communion during the service.

On Sunday we begin a new series in the morning services looking at the book of Habakkuk – if you have a chance over the weekend, it would be a good idea to read through the book in preparation for Sunday.

All of our mid-week groups are up and running again this week in their usual slots. Give thanks for a good first week back with the children's groups last week and continue to pray for the term ahead.

Home Bible Study Groups meet again this week to begin a new study in 1st Peter. Study guides and more information will be available from your group leader. If you've not been part of one of our Home Groups before, this is an ideal time to join one. Please speak Jonny or one of the Elders on Sunday, or reply to this email, and we'll get you linked up with a suitable group.

The Hebron Men's Walk is tomorrow - remember to confirm with Jonny (check the whatsapp group) if you are going along. Pray for a good time of fellowship and safety for all the walkers!

As well as our special summer Mission Appeal (see last week's news for a full update) we have news this month from Kirsty, one of our regular mission partners, working in the Indian Ocean islands.

Remember you can download the church app - a more handy version of our full website, without all the visitor information - which gives you a really easy way to glance at your rota dates, catch up on sermons, check the church calendar and find the church address book.

If you're reading this email on your phone just click this link and then the green button to install the app: www.hebronaberdeen.org.uk/hubb (you will need to log in but it has the bonus of remembering your login details for longer!)

Every Blessing,
