Hebron News Update

16th October

Just a short newsletter today, due to holidays:

On Sunday:

- 10:30am – Prayer Time in the games hall (with coffee served from 10:15am)
- 11am – Morning Service with Kevin continuing our topic in Acts. Children will go downstairs for Creche and Sunday School groups just before the sermon but the teens will stay upstairs this week and next.
- 12.15pm – Tea and Coffee served downstairs
- 6pm – We meet again when Joe Tough from Bon Accord Free Church visit to speak in our series in Genesis. We will also share communion together.
- 7.30pm – Roots Bible Study for 18-23s (ish).

Instead of serving lunch in the church for students and young adults this weekend, we have our Hosts at Home Sunday.

During this week, all of our mid-week groups, and Home Bible Studies are on a break for the school holidays, although choir will continue on Monday evening.

The church office will be quieter over the next week, with staff team having a few days off here and there. Jonny will have the full week off from 17th to 24th October.

A request for help with transport next weekend:

Friends International Weekend Away at Alltnacriche near Aviemore.
Friday 23rd - Sunday 25th October.

We still need one more driver to take international students who have booked to come to the weekend away from Aberdeen.
Meet the students 5:30pm in the car park at The Mission Church and drive to Alltnacriche on Friday evening.
Bring students home from Alltnacriche, leaving at 1:00pm on Sunday.
Drivers are welcome to join us for this weekend holiday, an outreach to international students from all over the world.

If you might be interested, please reply to this email as soon as possible for contact information!
