- 6pm – We meet for our evening service when Sergey will be speaking, we'll interview some people who were involved in missions this summer, and we'll share communion.
- 7.30pm - Roots Bible Study

During this week, all of our mid-week groups, and Home Bible Studies will be running as normal.

External Roofing work is expected to continue next week – there will be no parking at the church if the roofer is onsite.

Our annual Global Missions Weekend is on Sunday, when we look forward to visits from two of our mission partners: Colin & Elida, and Sergey & Irina. Colin will speak in the morning and Sergey in the evening. There will also be an extended prayer time at 10am before the morning service and a church lunch served at 12:45pm which everyone is invited to stay for.

Our latest Missions Today newsletter is attached to this email, with updates from Clare, Kirsty and Worldlink.

Continue to remember in prayer Gillian Milne and her family following Jimmy's call home on Tuesday this week, as well the family of Anne Walker after she passed away on Monday. Her funeral will take place in Bridge of Don Baptist Church on 28th November.

Our next Tea and Coffee rota is due to be set up this week – an ideal time to join in if you'd like to serve in this ministry! It's a lovely way to work alongside others in the church and to chat to everyone as they collect their cup of coffee. People tend to be on rota once in 6 weeks or thereabouts. Get in touch with Gillian Reid or reply to this email if you'd like to find out more.
